June 30

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mark 5:21- 43

In today's gospel reading from Mark, we hear about two of Jesus' miracles. A synagogue official named Jairus goes up to Jesus, falls at his feet and pleads for Jesus to come and heal his young daughter, who is dying. As Jesus goes with Jairus, a woman who has been hemorrhaging for twelve years comes up behind Jesus and touches his cloak. No doctor has been able to cure her and she believes that if she can just touch the cloak of Jesus she will be healed. And this is just what happens: her bleeding stops. Jesus is aware that power has gone out of him and asks who touched his clothing. She tells him the truth, and he tells her that her faith has saved her, and that she is cured. Jesus then goes to the home of Jairus, where people are wailing and crying and saying that the girl has died. But Jesus says to have faith, and then goes inside, takes her hand and tells her to rise. She immediately stands up and walks around, to the astonishment of everyone present.

How do you treat people who are different from you?

How could you be more like Jesus towards those who are different?

Today's Scriptures are Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24; Psalm 30:2, 4-6, 11-13; 2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15; Mark 5:21-43.
