July 7

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mark 6:1-6

This Gospel story tells us how Jesus goes to Nazareth with his disciples. When the Sabbath came, he began to teach in the synagogue, and many were amazed at what he said. And they asked, "Where did he get all this knowledge? What kind of wisdom has been given to him? What mighty things has he done with his hands? Isn't he just a carpenter, the son of Mary and Joseph?" And they didn't like him. Because of this, he wasn't able to perform any "mighty deeds" there, but did cure a few people by laying hands on them. He was surprised at their lack of faith.

Would Jesus be amazed at the lack of faith in your home?

Why or why not?

What can you do to strengthen your faith?

Today's Scriptures are Ezekiel 2:2-5; Psalm 123:1-4;
2 Corinthians 12:7-10; Mark 6:1-6.

We are halfway through the year. Other than "too fast", how is this year going for you?

Holy Father's Intentions for July:

For the pastoral care of the sick

We pray that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick confer to those who receive it and their loved ones the power of the Lord and become ever more a visible sign of compassion and hope for all.

Scriptures for the 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time are Amos 7:12-15; Psalm 85:9-14; Ephesians 1:3-14 or 1:3-10; Mark 6:7-13.

We hope you all had a Happy Independence Day!

God, source of all freedom, this day is bright with the memory of those who declared that life and liberty are your gift to every human being. Help us to continue a good work begun long ago. Make our vision clear and our will strong: that only in human solidarity will we find liberty, and justice only in the honor that belongs to every life on earth. Turn our hearts toward the family of nations: to understand the ways of others, to offer friendship, and to find safety only in the common good of all. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
