August 18

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

John 6:51-58

This Gospel reading from the Book of John gives us Eucharist elements once again. The language and images in this Gospel give us a deeper understanding of the Eucharist. They show a sacramental richness and beauty. Jesus speaks of those who eat his flesh and drink his blood. In this passage, Jesus states, "I am the living bread that came down from heaven," "I will raise him on the last day," and "I have life because of the Father."

What do the words "eat my flesh and drink my blood" refer to?

What does the statement "my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink" mean?

When we celebrate Eucharist, what do we become?

What are some of the ways we show that Jesus is part of our lives?

A relic of the Apostle St. Jude, held in Rome since ancient times, is completing a tour of 100 American cities. This is the first time the relic has ever left Italy. The relic will be available locally for veneration:

the Cathedral on August 21 from 2 to 9 pm, Mass at 5:30

At the Grotto on August 22 from 2 to 10 pm, Mass at 7 pm

Holy Father's Intentions for August:

For political leaders — We pray that political leaders be at the service of their own people, working for integral human development and for the common good, especially caring for the poor and those who have lost their jobs.

Scriptures for the 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time are Joshua 24:1-2, 15-18; Psalm 34:2-3, 16-21; Ephesians 5:21-32 or Ephesians 5:2, 25-32; John 6:60-69.

Why we believe in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist: Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever." These things he said while teaching in the synagogue in Capernaum. Jn. 6:53-59

Prayer to Begin a School Year

Blessed are you, Lord God, Creator of body and mind and heart;
you have sent the Spirit of wisdom and knowledge to guide
your people in all their ways.
At the beginning of this new school year (or semester/term)
we implore your mercy:
bless the students, teachers, and staff of N.,
that together we may grow in faith, hope, and love
as we learn from you and each other how to follow your Son Jesus.
Expand the horizons of our minds,
that we may grow in wisdom,
understanding, and knowledge;
deepen our commitment to seek the truth of your ways;
and enliven our faith to reach out to those in need.
Glory and praise to you, Lord God,
in the Church and in Christ Jesus forever and ever.
R/. Amen
